Location: USC (University of Southern California Thornton School of Music)

Information on the web: <http://www.grammyintheschools.com/programs/grammy-camp>

Applications are due by March 31.

One student from CCHS will receive a full scholarship ($1,500 camp fee).

Other students may receive financial assistance (submit a Financial Assistance Form).

There are 8 categories you can apply to attend:

Audio Engineering
Electronic Music Production
Songwriting
Performance – Vocal
Music Journalism
Video Production & Motion Graphics
Music Business
Performance – Instrumental

--There are links on the website for each of these categories with details and audition requirements.

You are welcome to complete the application on your own, but to be considered for the full scholarship, you must also write a letter to me expressing your interest in attending Grammy Camp and why you should be considered for the scholarship. I will also interview students who apply.

How To Apply:

- STEP 1: Complete the online application. (Please note: Parents or guardians must complete the application form on behalf of the camper.)
- STEP 2: Review video essay and career track requirements. Check out the AUDITIONS tab (<http://www.grammyintheschools.com/programs/grammy-camp/auditions>) for guidelines and helpful hints. Applicants can apply for multiple career tracks but can only participate in one career track per GRAMMY Camp session. Each career track has unique submission requirements.
- STEP 3: Prepare and submit your materials by March 31. Upload your video essay and audition video to YouTube.com submit your link(s) to the GRAMMY Museum via the online application portal.
- STEP 4 (optional): Complete the financial assistance form – If you are applying for needs-based financial assistance for GRAMMY Camp, have a parent or guardian complete the online Financial Assistance Form once you've filled out the online application. Over the past 3 years 70% of campers that applied for financial aid received some sort of assistance. Financial assistance recipients will be announced and notified by early May.

NOTE: There is a $25 fee to submit the application.
